

CHILDREN'S AUTHOR VISITS & CREATIVE LITERACY WORKSHOPS

Inspiring Reading, Creativity & Confidence

Lisa M. Billingham is a West Midlands-based children's author who delivers engaging literacy workshops and author visits for primary schools, libraries, and learning groups. Her sessions inspire imagination, empathy, and confidence, helping children connect emotionally with stories and discover the joy of reading and writing.

Workshops for KS1 & KS2

Lisa offers one-day interactive workshops, tailored to age group, curriculum focus, and school needs. Sessions are inclusive, accessible, and fun — ideal for both reluctant and confident readers.

Workshop Outcomes:

- Increased enthusiasm for reading and writing
- Improved confidence and self-expression
- Stronger emotional literacy and empathy
- Meaningful engagement with storytelling

Available as in-person visits across the UK and beyond.

Books Used in Workshops

Lisa's children's books are woven into each session through readings and creative activities:

- Charlie Gold (age 10+)
- Sedrick's Adventures in Hopeland (age 7-11)
- The Adventures of Wiggle and Waggle (Age 5-7)

These stories help children see themselves in characters and understand that their own voices matter.
